PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- 2017 – present      Director of Dissertation Support Services/Professor, Abraham S. Fischler College of Education and School of Criminal Justice, Nova Southeastern University, Ft Lauderdale, FL. As Director of Dissertation Support Services (DSS) I am responsible for overseeing the dissertation process for 1500 English and Spanish-speaking EdD students. Duties include overseeing dissertation chair and members, including assignments and payments; addressing any student or dissertation chair concerns or questions; implementing professional development for dissertation chairs; acting as instructor of record for all of the dissertation benchmarks and applied dissertation services, including collecting and entering SAP grades at the end of each term. Other duties include providing academic support in the research process to all dissertation students via a dissertation workshop series each Fall and Winter; facilitating weekly Q&A sessions for our students; and planning the Summer Institute, which is a requirement for all students in the EdD program.
- 2015-2021      Associate Professor, Abraham S. Fischler College of Education, Nova Southeastern University, Ft Lauderdale, FL. Duties include teaching doctoral level courses both online and on-site, advising doctoral students, writing curriculum, providing service, and conducting research. Teaching assignments include Nature of Knowing, Survey Research, Methods of Inquiry, Statistical Methods, and Leadership. Also responsible for reviewing and revising course syllabi to keep students apprised of current practical and theoretical research in their field of expertise; advising dissertation students in the areas of research methods and statistics to ensure strong, empirically based dissertations; reviewing and approving Institutional Review Board (IRB) documents for doctoral students engaging in research. Additional duties include reviewing credentials of prospective and/or current adjunct employees and making recommendations for their continued employment and/or teaching assignments; participating in academic committees within the college and serve as a college representative for various NSU committees; engaging in scholarly research via peer reviewed journal publications and national conference presentations.
- 2005-2020      Director of Athletic Administration, Fischler College of Education and Human Services, Nova Southeastern University, North Miami

Beach, FL. Administrate and coordinate the Masters of Science in Education with an emphasis in Athletic Administration. Serve as coordinator for the program, including maintaining currency in all syllabi and textbooks, recruiting and scheduling teaching faculty for all Athletic Administration specialization courses, maintaining and addressing any student or professor questions, issues, and concerns.

2010-2015

Program Professor of Research and Statistics, Fischler College of Education, Nova Southeastern University, North Miami Beach, FL. Provide academic instruction to students by advising and teaching doctoral level courses both online and on-site. Review and revise curriculum materials, course syllabi, and/or instructional assignments to keep students apprised of current practical and theoretical research in their field of expertise. Teach Survey Research, Methods of Inquiry, Statistical Methods, Program Evaluation, and Mixed Methods Research. Advise dissertation students in the areas of research methods and statistics to ensure strong, empirically based dissertations. Participate in academic committees within Fischler and serve as a Fischler representative for various NSU committees. Engage in scholarly research via scholarly journal publications and national conference presentations.

Director of Institutional Research, Fischler School of Education and Human Services (FSEHS), Nova Southeastern University, North Miami Beach, FL. Plan and systematically evaluate the effectiveness of NSU/FSEHS's teaching, research, service, administration, and student support by developing specific assessment strategies. Initiate, coordinate, and continuously assess the learning outcomes of students in each of the FSEHS programs to measure each program's effectiveness. Provide leadership and assistance in the collection of data to assess institutional effectiveness. Analyze data and report findings of assessment activities to the FSEHS administrative team. Plan, coordinate and continuously conduct institutional research activities (e.g., enrollment trends, graduation rates, dropout rates) to help guide decision-making for the administrative team. Prepare reports on the outcomes of research and evaluation for the administrative team to help guide decision-making at FSEHS. Teach graduate courses in research design and methodology, statistics, test and measurement and program evaluation. Conduct research activities and present results at national conferences and in peer reviewed journals.

- 2005-2006 Program Professor of Applied Research, Fischler School of Education and Human Services, North Miami Beach, FL. Administrate and coordinate dissertation and research activities within the Organizational Leadership and Higher Education Leadership programs through the Applied Research Center. Provide leadership and training to online and site-based mentors in the responsibilities of their positions and in their role as chairpersons and members in the dissertation process. Conduct workshops on the dissertation process for mentors and students. Develop and update research and statistics curricula. Teach graduate courses in research design and methodology, statistics, test and measurement and program evaluation. Conduct research activities and present results at national conferences and in peer reviewed journals.
- 2004-2010 Instructional Design Consultant, 21st Century Learning Solutions, Orlando, Florida. Responsible for collaborating with distinguished university professors from across the country using e-College, Microsoft PowerPoint, and Microsoft Equation Editor; coordinating and assisting in managing a team for the development and design of online graduate engineering and computer science courses with streaming video for National Technological University (NTU).
- 2003-2010 Statistics and Measurement Consultant. Responsible for assisting students with their statistics on their theses and dissertations, as well as supporting professors with statistics and measurement in their publications.
- 2001-2004 Graduate Research Assistant, Florida State University, Learning Systems Institute, Tallahassee, Florida.
